4. Transition
   - Teacher will transition to instruction by turning on the PowerPoint presentation and reading the LOs aloud to the class.

5. Class Discussion
   - Discuss important events in Colombian history from the Origins article

   1. Tell me about a conflict in Colombia. Why did the conflict start?

   2. Tell me about a policy change in Colombia. What did the policy address?

   3. Why would the people who eventually created the FARC be unhappy with the National-Front Power Sharing Referendum?

5. Class Discussion
   - Recall different events mentioned in the timeline

   1. Answers may vary. Answers resemble: The conflicts of La Violencia, which resulted in the death of roughly 200,000, was the result of unfair land distribution. The murder of Jorge Eliécer Gaitán in 1948 sparked the conflict.

   2. The National-Front Power Sharing Referendum addressed a need for balance in government by guaranteeing to alternate power between conservative and liberal parties.

   3. The agreement alternates power between two parties. A new Marxist party which wanted power was unable to achieve it as this agreement locked third parties out of the system. As a result, the FARC
| 6. Activating Prior Knowledge | was formed.
6. Activating Prior Knowledge
1. The United States has resolved internal conflict many times throughout its history. To resolve these conflicts, the United States has acted in different ways, such as:
   - a. War - The Civil War
   - b. Popular Vote - Issue 1-3
   - c. Protests/demonstrations - MLK, Black Lives Matter
   - d. Diplomacy - DNC mediating between two candidates’ platforms

| 7. Transition | 2. A big social change occurred during the Civil Rights protests. These protests pushed for equality and eventually granted equal opportunity employment, education, right to vote, etc.
3. Martin Luther King was a very important leader during the Civil Rights Movement. MLK spoke about injustices and organized nonviolent protests that called attention to these injustices.

| 7. Transition | 7. Transition
Students will think about whether past conflict resolutions are applicable to Colombia’s conflict.

| 8. Planning an Intervention | 8. Planning an Intervention
- a. 10 minutes to complete handout
- b. 5 minutes to discuss findings with partner
- c. Think Pair Share
- d. Guiding/Enrichment Questions
  - Has this plan been attempted before? Either in Colombia or other countries?
  - Is it possible for your intervention plan to meet the needs of everybody in Colombia?
- e. Think Pair Share

<td>IEP Students: Students with visual impairments will be intentionally seated closer to the front of the room so they get a clear view of the timeline. Handouts will be provided to all students with a blank timeline they can fill out based on class discussion. PowerPoint presentation will include large font size for these students as well. Students who frequently are absent due to illness will be provided with a photograph of the timeline as well as the graphic organizer.</td>
<td>Whole Group Discussion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Gifted/Talented: Students who have been identified as GT will be provided opportunities to defend or challenge another student’s work. A5 provides them with a higher order thinking activity which is opt-in.</td>
<td>Guiding Questions</td>
