Picture Gallery

1. Write two to three sentences describing what you think you see in each picture in the context of the Syrian Civil War.

2. As a group use the key words to synthesize what you think you know about the Syrian Civil War.

Picture _____

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Key word:______________________

Picture _____

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Key word:______________________

Picture_______

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Key word:______________________
What do you think you know about the Syrian Civil War?

Key word __________________

To be completed at the end of class

Exit Slip

How might historians be valuable consultants when considering the Syrian Civil War?