

Plickers Quiz: Questions & Bolded Answers

Instructions: The following are the questions and possible answers for the accompanying Plickers quiz for this lesson. The Plickers quiz is shared as a link in the materials, but feel free to use this as an additional resource. The correct answers are written in bold.

1. What makes an implied power different from an expressed power?
 - a. Implied powers are directly in the constitutions
 - b. Implied powers don't have to be followed by states
 - c. Implied powers aren't written directly in the constitution
 - d. Expressed powers must be stated verbally

2. What might limit the government in "policing the police"?
 - a. State government interests
 - b. State constitutions
 - c. Popular opinion
 - d. Expressed powers

3. What is meant by "policing the police"?
 - a. Giving local police departments more power
 - b. Interpreting police activities through the Constitution
 - c. Taking away powers from the police
 - d. Monitoring police activity for dangerous behavior

4. How did our activity demonstrate an aspect of federalism?
 - a. Ability of national government to make decisions
 - b. The president has the final say
 - c. States' rights to self-govern
 - d. Local governments always win out

5. What system of government divides it into local, state, and national governments that work together?
 - a. Federalism
 - b. Direct Democracy
 - c. Autocracy
 - d. Monarchy