

Gallery Walk Sources- The Long Legacy of WWI

Document A: Run on Berlin Bank When War Declared. (n.d.). photograph. Retrieved from <http://origins.osu.edu/article/long-legacy-world-war-i>

Document B: Your Liberty Bond will Help Stop This. Amorsolo, F. C. (n.d.). Retrieved from <http://www.loc.gov/pictures/item/2002722586/>

Document C: If You Can't Enlist, Invest. McCay, W. (n.d.). A United States poster advertising World War I Liberty Bonds. Retrieved from <http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3g09888>

Document D: Ubbelohde, O. (n.d.). Poster of the Baruch Strauss Bank in Marburg and Frankfurt a. M for the 9th German war bond during the WW1 in September 1918 with a drawing by Otto Ubbelohde. Colored lithography, format 116 x 80 cm. Printed by C. G. Röder G.m.b.H. Leipzig.

Deutschland hat ewigen Bestand,
Es ist ein kerngesundes Land!
Deshalb Deutscher zeichne die 9-Kriegsanleihe!

Zeichnungen nimmt entgegen
Bankhaus Baruch Strauss
Marburg a. L. Tel. Nr. 29-136. gegr. 1866. Frankfurt a. M. Tel. Hanfa 7371-7372-7373.

Originalzeichnung von Prof. Otto Ubbelohde für das Bankhaus Baruch Strauss Marburg a. Frankfurt a. M. Nachdruck verboten.

Document E: European Debt After The Great War. Reinhart and Rogoff, Guggenheim Investments. (n.d.).

Document F: The Long Legacy of WWI. Cabanas, B., Siegel, J., & Retish, A. (n.d.).

<http://origins.osu.edu/article/long-legacy-world-war-i>

