

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: In each circle you will write down what you think are the most significant legacies of World War I and how it affects the world today, based on notes you have gathered and from the notes gathered by your classmates. Then, as a group, you will decide what the overlapping consequences are. In other words, how do these three legacies connect? Look for change and impact.

